

VRINGO FILES LAWSUIT AGAINST THE ADT CORPORATION, ADT LLC, ADT SECURITY SERVICES INC., AND TYCO INTEGRATED SECURITY LLC

09/12/13

NEW YORK - September 12, 2013 - Vringo, Inc. (NASDAQ: VRNG), a company engaged in the innovation, development and monetization of intellectual property and mobile technologies, today announced that its wholly owned subsidiary, Vringo Infrastructure, Inc., filed a patent infringement lawsuit against The ADT Corporation, ADT LLC, ADT Security Services, Inc., and Tyco Integrated Security, LLC in United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

The lawsuit alleges infringement of U.S. Patent No. 6,288,641, entitled "Assembly, and Associated Method, for Remotely Monitoring a Surveillance Area" ("the '641 Patent"). The '641 Patent relates to, amongst other things, the use of a mobile terminal to remotely monitor a location (e.g., home or business).

Vringo Infrastructure is represented by Lerner, David, Littenberg, Krumholz & Mentlik, LLP and Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson, P.A.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements, which may be identified by words such as "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "estimates," "projects," "intends," "should," "seeks," "future," "continue," or the negative of such terms, or other comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. Such forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained herein. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, but are not limited to: our inability to license and monetize our patents, including the outcome of the litigation against online search firms and other companies; our inability to monetize and recoup our investment with respect to patent assets that we acquire; our inability to develop and introduce new products and/or develop new intellectual property; new legislation, regulations or court rulings related to enforcing patents, that could harm our business and operating results; unexpected trends in the mobile phone and telecom infrastructure industries; our inability to raise additional capital to fund our combined operations and business plan; our inability to maintain the listing of our securities on NASDAQ; the potential lack of market acceptance of our products; potential competition from other providers and products; our inability to retain key members of our management team; and other risks and uncertainties and other factors discussed from time to time in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), including our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012 filed with the SEC on March 21, 2013. Vringo expressly disclaims any obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements contained herein, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
