

VRINGO ANNOUNCES LEADERSHIP TRANSITION

December 19, 2014

NEW YORK - December 19, 2014 - Vringo, Inc. (NASDAQ: VRNG), today announces that the company has entered into a new employment agreement with Anastasia Nyrvkovskaya, who will continue to serve as Chief Financial Officer, and a consulting agreement with Alexander R. Berger, who will transition from the role of Chief Operating Officer and director to a consultant to the company. Mr. Berger will remain a member of boards of directors of certain Vringo subsidiaries.

"The Vringo board of directors joins me in thanking Alex for his tireless efforts since the founding of Innovate/Protect, through its merger with Vringo and the continued growth of the company. Alex enjoys growing companies and has done a tremendous job building Vringo's infrastructure. We appreciate him commuting from his home in Boston to our New York offices for the last eighteen months, and look forward to continuing to work with him," said Andrew D. Perlman, Chief Executive Officer.

"I look forward to remaining engaged with the Vringo management team and board as the company executes on its business plan. I have transitioned my executive responsibilities to a talented management team, and have confidence in their abilities to continue to manage the company," said Mr. Berger.

"Anastasia continues to be a key member of our executive management team, and I look forward to her expanding her role at Vringo," Mr. Perlman continued.
